Company Profile

JULPHAR Technology was established in 2011. It aims to implement, develop and find smart solutions for computer software for governmental sections and private companies.

JULPHAR is one of Microsoft's certified partners in the Middle East. It also aims to re-define ultimate technicality for institutions and companies, and provides the best solutions by using the latest technicality and modern technologies for the challenging problems that might face our clients in the future.

JULPHAR focuses on its work's strategy targeting big, small, local, regional, and international companies in the market to manage their daily work, and increase their revenue and gain their satisfaction by decreasing the overload and wasted time in analyzing and planning to produce and achieve high quality professionally.

What distinguishes JULPHAR from any similar company is that it offers many comprehensive and integrated services such as computer devices, networks, internet, software programming solutions, consulting , security solution, prevention and some other services such as the following:

Customizing and developing software.

Testing software & quality assurance.

Data conversion.

Websites Design.

Web Applications.

Hosting & Domain name Registration.

Graphic Design & Printouts.

Computer, Networks & Software Maintenance.

Selling Computer Equipments & Devices.

Computer Networks & Internet

Setting Surveillance Cameras.

Setting time attendance & finger print machines.

JULPHAR is able to offer software solutions that were developed and modified at the hands of a team of specialists and they are easily modified and developed in accordance to the needs of the local and Arab markets.

Microsoft Dynamic Great Plains: Inclusive business solutions system, it's a complete computer programs that serves all kinds of Industrial, commercial, and governmental sectors.

Tracking system: it's a web application system have many forms to fill the full information about shipment and track each shipment with reminders and follow up procedures.

Accounting system: it's a complete software program that records and processes accounting transactions such as payments, receipts, trial balance, receipt vouchers, payrolls, debt collections, financial reports (statement of account; expenses; sales).

Stores & Warehouses system: The objective of a warehouse management system is to provide a set of computerized procedures to handle the receipt of stock sales, purchases and wastage. And handles all warehouses and stores reports, receipt of stock and returns into a warehouse, inventory, and manage the logical representation of the physical storage facilities manage the stock within the facility.

Employee's System: it handles everything that concern employees, such as vacations, absence, attendance, taxes, and insurance….etc.

Invoicing system: issues invoices electronically, depending on what information the user is entering. It is useful for companies that offer services, and not suppliers.

Cheque system: it prints out the clients cheques on a ready printed form and authorizes four users, before reaching the printing process.

Projects management system: it follows-up on any kind of project in a company; it can give the status, agenda, and appointments, Applied on for a project, or a client, and finds out the status of calls and mails.

Point of Sale System: it is a package of software, specialized in buying and selling directly to the customer. Offering discounts through the manager's screen, which also allows him to see the amount of sales invoices, profits, issue reports, taxes reports, etc.

Selling books system: it is a system specialized in any action concerning libraries such as; entering books information, searching process, issue invoices, statement of accounts, inventory, etc.

Pharmacy system: it is specialized in pharmacies, and medicine warehouses. It controls the cash flow, storage, bank accounts, and all storage reports.

Maintenance system: it is a program specialized in recording client's calls asking about their devices that are submitted under maintenance. The system contains all devices under probation, and the engineers whom supervised on setting these devices.

+962 6 50 63 63 4
+962 79 5 022 066
+962 77 5 022 066

Amman – Tbarbour – Tareq St. Kenza Center 110, 4th Floor 411

www.julphars.com

info@julphars.com

The system records all calls concerning the devices, defines faults, and any spare parts used for these devices. It also transmits outputs reports for spare parts under warranty, and reports for pending devices that's not repaired, but contains faults. Allows follow-up for each case of these faults and their status.

Web Sites:

www.alameedcoffee.com

www.mymoexpress.com

www.advaclinic.com

www.hlaiyel.com.jo

All JULPHAR software offers has two interfaces in both English and Arabic languages, it can handle any amount of users depending on the status of the user. What distinguishes our program is the simple method of search, retrieving data.

We implement our qualified employees and their skills and our experiences to satisfy our clients' needs in no time and with the best technical skills. We guarantee to offer the best services to you.